

Guidelines to Award Paper

Award Paper Session

Session Name-Award Paper Session

Time allotted: 6 minutes (5 minutes for presentation +1 minute for Q&A)

Guidelines for Award Paper Session

1. The research that is presented should be neither prepublished in any journal nor should be presented anywhere else before.
2. There will be awards for the best 1st, 2nd & 3rd papers presented and all the participants will be issued certificate of participation.
3. The presentation must be mandatorily carried out as a power point presentation and must be completed in 6 minutes (5 minutes for presentation +1 minute for Q&A). The highlights should be the concluding part of the presentation. There will not be any provision of extra time under circumstances whatsoever. Kindly plan your presentation sticking to time bound guidelines, accuracy, precision and to the point. Exceeding allotted time limit may invite disqualification. Maximum number slides should be 15 including Introduction and Thank-You.
4. Conflict of Interest-All participants of the above award paper session shall disclose any kind of Conflict of Interest .If there is no interest to be declared, a "No conflict of Interest" declaration shall be submitted.
5. Privacy of the Subjects-Photographs should be non-revealing and should be completely respecting the privacy and non-disclosure policy of the identity. Eyes should be either covered or must be darkened out. The source of photographs must always be disclosed if it is not belonging to the presenter. This is to discourage any kind of mal- practice with regards to photographic property. Any kind of prior permission from the patient must be obtained as a written document and should be mentioned wherever necessary.
6. Compatibility and usage of Videos-Commonly used video formats like WMV, MPEG1 or AV1 must be employed for the presentation. Any other formats may not be compatible.
7. Prohibited Displays-Any kind of animations or animated images ,videos or hyper-links are strictly prohibited and will be treated as non-functional .Please refrain from display of any kind of pornography or unpleasant matter which may lead to any kind of disrespect to living or non-living being, in an incidental or coincidental way may be considered as a step forward to disqualification .
8. Prerequisites-All the presenters must make sure that their respective presentations are ready and uploaded in the preview room 4 hours before the actual programme.